

RINGED BY THREE-THOUSAND-METRE PEAKS

Bergl Alm 2.214m

The Bergl Alm is a rustic mountain restaurant in Schnalstal, the homeland of Ötzi. As you would expect from a mountain restaurant, traditional meals and home-made specialties await you here.

The restaurant is surrounded by several three-thousand-metre peaks, an idyllic high mountain landscape, expansive spruce forests and a small lake. The panorama is a dream! The mountain restaurant can be reached via a number of hiking routes.

We recommend the hike from Kurzras in Schnalstal. Follow the No. 5 trail markers from the Schnalstal glacier lift car park in Kurzras. Other hiking routes can also be found on the homepage of the mountain restaurant.
