

FUN-LOVING GET-TOGETHERS

Eishof 2.076m

The Eishof on the Meraner Höhenweg is a mountain restaurant that you certainly won't forget in a hurry, because it is so unique. On the one hand, there's the unbelievably good food – which not only tastes authentic and delicious but is also served in a fabulous way. But it is the colourful mix of the Eishof team that also gives this mountain restaurant its very special character. You can see and feel how much fun these people have working there. Maybe they will tell you the story about how they met while travelling in Argentina where the idea was born to give life and style to a mountain restaurant in their own unique way.

Eishof is located at a height of 2076 m in the Texelgruppe Nature Reserve. You can admire the Hohe Weiße and Hohe Wilde from afar while sipping a local gin made with hay tonic or a strawberry and thyme spritz. It is a good starting point for a longer hiking tour. Simply have a look around the Eishof website, which will give you a good insight into the flair of this mountain restaurant. You can also find here information about parties and events.
